(1469-1527) NICCOLO MACHIAVELLI

Italian statesman and writer. Born at Florence. From 1498 to 1512 he was secretary of the Florentine Republic but was dismissed on the victory of the MEDICI party and imprisoned for a short time (1513). In 1519 the MEDICI whose favor he had won, assigned him some minor posts. The remainder of his life, however, was devoted principally to literary work. His most noted production is "The Prince."
